The Class of 1959 would like to pay tribute to the late Gordon Taylor, father of one of our classmates. His passing is noted with deep regret; he served many years as New Kent's leading merchant; he served on the School Board; he will be missed by all.

Foreword

Students, we present you the 1959 edition of the Cavalier.

Seniors, for you this book will be a picture of your last year in school. May it be rich in golden memories of friends made in the past twelve years and of days well spent.

To the entire student body may it present a challenge to do your best work and never waiver in your quest for knowledge and truth.

Dedication

We, the Senior Class of 1959, proudly dedicate this annual to Mrs. Jacqueline R. Perry. This is our way of saying "thank you," to a helpful, understanding teacher. She has worked unceasingly to instill in us the principles of chemistry, physics, and biology. It must have been quite discouraging at times, but we hope she has received some little satisfaction from her efforts. We have gained much. Thank you, Mrs. Perry!

The Parent-Teacher Association is an organization composed of the patrons and teachers of New Kent School. The Association helps the parent to understand the function of the school, and it gives the teacher a better understanding of her students.

During the years the P-T-A has contributed much to the physical welfare of our school. The group bought and paid for new curtains for the stage; it has been generous in supplying needed books for the library. In December the Association recognized our teachers by having "Teacher Appreciation Day" with gifts for each one.

Of Things to Come??

Washington, D. C.

June 5, 1969

Dear Barbara,

Gee, hasn't time flown? How do you like London? I see you are in the news quite often with your concert playing. I knew you could make it with your playing the piano and George's playing the violin. Sorry to hear that you couldn't continue teaching Shorthand. Too many classes like the one in '59?

I don't guess you've been able to keep up with our classmates. I saw Johnny Pearman a few weeks ago. All the girls are still swooning over him since he's become the girls' coach at New Kent. He's still a bachelor. He says that he just can't find his true love.

You know, quite a few of our classmates have become famous. Gin Taylor went to modeling school. I read in a movie magazine that she's a glamorous model in Chicago. Emmett Couch took dramatic lessons and starred in the movie "Love 'Em and Leave 'Em." Julianna Renalds attended a large designing school and now she's head dress designer at Macy's in New York. Kent McLaughlin went to New York and starred in the Broadway production of "She's My Daisy." Luther Leber is now a big star on the T.V. program "Gun-smoke." He stars as Chester. It's the only western which features an opera singer.

I saw Gay Griffith Stevens last week. She continued her interest in pharmacy and now her husband owns a large drug store in Richmond. Gay told me that Shirley Adams married Robert and now she's part owner of Babcock & Phillips. They have five additions to their family.

Barb, do you remember how quiet Leon Edwards and Isabel Davis were? Leon, after furthering his education at V.P.I. and playing around in local politics, was appointed the Secretary of Agriculture. Isabel married Curtis White soon after graduation. He is now owner of a construction company. They are living in the big city of Barhamsville. Isabel said that Matthew Wooten married soon after graduation and is now traveling around the world with his wife and seven children.

You know Jackie quit her job as hostess for Pan American? She never could resist good-looking interns, especially ones from M.C.V. She finally broke down and married the one she was going with when we graduated. Jackie told me that Donald McKay took over his father's job and is now head warden at Sing Sing.

You remember Ben Graves, don't you? Well, he's now a famous Rock and Roll singer and goes by the name of "Curly Locks."

Wayne Taylor is now a stock car racer. I read in the paper that he has another hot Chevy. Billy Denton is a principal at a school teaching children, "How to Goof Off." I hear he still likes to leave school and go duck hunting.

Gee, Barb, the last time I saw you, Dee was playing football at U.C.L.A. and I was an airline hostess. Well, after he graduated from college, we got married. His being a lawyer has really paid off since we've been divorced three times and are getting married again next week.

Hope to get another letter off to you in the near future. Do write, Barbara, when you get a chance.

Love ya,
Kay

Of Things Left Behind

We, the Seniors of 1959 possessing all our senses do bequeath and bequit, leave, give, and throw away the following:

- Dee Dalrymple wills his ability to be the greatest in everything to anyone who thinks he is good enough to deserve it and his height to Glenn Priddy.
- Julianna Renalds wills her unending appetite to Dean Frame and her ability to go to sleep in class to Ruth Dean and her love for sewing to Elsie.
- John Pearman wills his position on the football team to Bucky Bagget and his idea that all the girls are in love with him to his brother Jimmy.
- Gin Taylor leaves her blond curly hair to Bonnie Barfknecht and her love for Norfolk to anyone who belongs to the "Lonely Hearts Club."
- Matthew Wooten wills his ability to get good grades in English to Richard Dean and his wavy hair to Bobby Paul.
- Kay Batkins wills her ability to have a party every day in Shorthand II Class to Dot Wyndham and her ability to go steady for the long period of two weeks to Gloria Couch.
- Wayne Taylor wills his height to Bubba Batkins and his ability to tear up automobiles to Carter Richardson.
- Billy Denton wills his love for James Blair to Lenny Madison and his Daniel Boone rifle to Bradley Moore.
- Barbara Upp wills the lonesome weekend nights of her senior year to anyone who is unlucky enough to find her steady at a Military School and her ability to always control her temper to Betty Walls.
- Emmett Couch wills his sweat socks to Jimmy Ashley and his ambition to end up in the poor house to Tommy Wilson.
- Jackie Kent wills her love for parties to Becky Barfknecht and her ability to go steady for three years to Jean Seward, who is foolish enough to do it.
- Isabel Davis wills her long hair to Peggy Dean and her love for Home Economics to Mary Ellen Ellyson.
- Gay Griffith wills her height to Mable Dean and her interest in Pharmacy to Wanda Dzula.
- Kent McLaughlin wills his histrionic ability to Henry Clyde Pace.
- Daniel Leber wills his ability to explode with laughter at nothing to Herbert White.
- Shirley Adams wills her ability to study every night to her sister Diane and her empty fountain pen, when it's time for dictation, to Mrs. Roberts.
- Donald McKay wills his ability to drive the school bus safely to Buddy Johnson.
- Ben Graves wills his ability to daydream in Physics class to Jack King and his love for chewing gum to Mrs. Mears.
- Leon Edwards wills his helpfulness to Arthur Garthright and his nervous foot to Jane King.
- We, the Seniors, will our front row seats in the auditorium to the Juniors; our ability to get along with each other to the Sophomores; and to the Freshmen, high hopes for a successful career in high school.

Of Things Past

It really doesn't seem long since Mrs. Hockaday met us at the door twelve years ago to welcome us to the first grade. Today there are only fourteen of that frightened group, now grown quite brave, in our class. They are Virginia Taylor, Kay Batkins, Isabel Davis, Shirley Adams, Jackie Kent, Gay Griffith, John Dalrymple, Donald McKay, Daniel Leber, Ben Graves, Billy Denton, John Pearman, Leon Edwards, and Emmett Couch.

Barbara Upp and Wayne Taylor joined us in the second grade which was taught by Mrs. Fisher. Reading and numbers were less of a mystery to us as we reached the third grade at which point Mrs. Robertson instructed us. Julianna Renalds joined us, but Billy Denton and Wayne Taylor left us only temporarily, however.

In the fourth grade we had two successive teachers, Mrs. Booten and Miss Summers. Matthew Wooten became one of us during this year. From the fourth we were promoted to the care of Miss Shorter in the fifth grade.

Mrs. Potts taught us the first half of our sixth year in school. Mrs. Robbins took over the second semester. Billy Denton re-appeared to join our class. The seventh grade found us facing a familiar face, for again we had Miss Shorter as our teacher.

In the eighth grade we had our first man teacher, Mr. Rudicille. Quite a change. Daniel Leber moved away. High school was much nearer now, for we had a representative in the May Court - Barbara Upp. Gay Griffith was president of the class.

Ninth grade! Now we really were high school: Mrs. Mears was our home room teacher; Algebra and Latin had to be faced. Jackie Kent was in the May Court. Again Gay was our president.

Miss Trimmer was our home room teacher in the tenth grade. At this point we began to feel that we might really make it: We began to think about money-making projects in order to be prepared for our Junior and Senior years. Kay Batkins represented our class in the May Court. John Pearman was our class president.

In our Junior year, we discovered we were actors: We presented "A Ready-Made Family" under the direction of Mrs. Richmond, our home room teacher. Wayne Taylor and Daniel Leber re-joined the group and Kent McLaughlin became a member of the class. On May 3, we honored the Seniors with a dinner and prom. The theme was "An Evening in Paris." Shirley Adams represented us in the May Court. Barbara Upp was our class president.

Now twelve years later, we are the Senior Class. It is sometimes difficult to believe. This year we co-sponsored the Corn Club Banquet; we presented our play, "She's My Daisy," under the direction of Mrs. Mears, our home room teacher. Ben Graves was our president.

And, now, good-bye from the Class of '59.
